

Data controller

The data controller is the Marshall Aid Commemoration Commission (MACC), represented by its appointed administrator, the British Council, 1 Redman Place, Stratford, London, E20 1JQ UK. The Data Protection Officer is the Data Protection Officer of the FCDO.

Purpose of processing

Some examples of the type of information we may collect about you are:

- Your name and your title
- Job title
- Postal address
- Telephone number(s)
- Email address(es)
- Records of your correspondence with us (whether email or hard copy)
- Dietary, accessibility and mobility information
- Photographs and digital images of you if you attend our events

Your information may be used to:

- invite you to participate in MACC activities or events
- seek you opinions or advice on areas that we consider to be of mutual interest
- provide you with information about us or that we consider may interest you (including about carefully selected third party events, products or campaigns)
- keep a record of our interactions with you

Legal basis for processing

The legal basis for processing your data is the MACC's legitimate interests.

Data Recipients

The data provided may be shared with the Secretariat of the Marshall Aid Commemoration Commission (the British Council, whose Privacy Policy can be found at: www.britishcouncil.org/privacy); the Association of Marshall Scholars; and other representatives of your university.

Data Transfers

Your data will be processed by the MACC, the British Council and other third parties. Your data will be protected in accordance with the UK General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and the Data Protection Act 2018. Your data may be transferred outside of the UK and European Economic Area (EEA).

Retention

Your data will be retained indefinitely. If you ask us not to send any further information we will respect that request.

Your rights

You have the following rights:

- To be informed, which is the purpose of this Privacy Notice

- To obtain a copy of your personal data. There is no fee for this unless you make repeated requests for the same data. We will provide your data as soon as possible
- To have your personal data rectified if it is inaccurate or incomplete - at most within one month.
- To have processing of your data restricted or stopped if you contest its accuracy, or object to its processing. In such cases processing will be restricted until the matter is resolved. We will inform you of that resolution.
- To object if you consider you have grounds relating to your particular circumstances.
- To complain about the way we have processed your personal data, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office, the statutory body which oversees UK data protection law: www.ico.org.uk/concerns or email casework@ico.org.uk
